July 18, 2017 PROGRAM NOTES

Daniel Boor recommends replacing a water heater that is more than 8 years old or you otherwise might be calling his company, SERVPRO of South Garland, to wring the water out of your home. Daniel's company provides 24-hour residential and commercial restoration services and its motto is "faster to any size disaster". In addition to water and fire damage restoration, SERVPRO provides mold remediation and cleaning services. They strive to make a restoration look like it never happened. If you suffer from water or fire damage, call Daniel at any time, day or night, for an immediate response.
