October 23, 2018

Per our interior design expert, Lynn Hood, of LJH Interiors, gold and brass metallic accents are in! Lynn reviewed these and other current design trends at Tuesday's meeting. Current trends are reminiscent of what was trending 25 years ago, with large florals and patterns adding "pop" to interiors. Open concepts are still very popular and splashes of color utilizing wallpaper, art, and furniture are being integrated with existing interiors. Lynn has been practicing interior design since 1975 and has developed a philosophy of getting to know her clients personally which helps gain an understanding of their needs and desires. She feels that by approaching each project in this way it enables her to create unique interiors which reflect the client's tastes and lifestyles.

Tuesday October 30th Program: Darrell Blank – The UPS Store Josey Ranch.

Notes and Announcements

In recognition that Halloween is almost here, every member is requested to bring a candy bar to Tuesday's meeting and explain how that candy bar exemplifies you or your business. Example: "My business is like a Payday – utilize my services and you'll increase your income. It will be like you have an additional "Payday". Best presentation wins all of the candy!

Elaine revamped fun bucks and awarded all proceeds to the winner: Bob Nienstadt, who pocketed $45. Jim Poluikis and Bob Sheeley each won $10 from the fun bucks reserve fund.

TUESDAY'S MEETING: 11 members present.
