The UPS Store™

At Darrell Blank's UPS Store, not only you can ship items, but you can also get anything printed, except money. Darrell shared examples of the many types of printing services offered by his store, such as: menus, business cards, stationery, signs, and banners. Darrell's store is a one stop shop for a variety of products and services that include: Notary Services, Passport and Photo ID, Document Shredding, Fax, and House Accounts. As the shipping season approaches, Darrell encourages everyone to ship early. His store is available to help you manage your small business or personal life.

Notes and Announcements

Per Elaine's suggestion, DBA will alter its weekly meeting format to make sure we emphasize our guests. The first agenda item will be to welcome guests and ask them to give a 30 second introduction. Then, the members introduce themselves. As we go around the table, guests get another 30 second opportunity. This gives each guest fair opportunity to speak and to learn the names of the other members while keeping the agenda moving.
